

Press Release - 5

A Natural Oasis

is the first Summer School dedicated to contemporary arts, taking place in the Republic of San Marino from 13 to 19 July 2014 in the wonderful municipality of Montegiardino. It will be a week of study and research dedicated to emerging young artists and cultural researchers under 34 years of age coming from all over Europe, the Small States of Europe, geo-cultural micro-areas and Mediterranean countries selected through a specific call. Some of the most interesting moments of the Summer School will be open to the public. See below/attached the press release, adv Mousse Magazine and the timetable of scheduled lectures and meeting events.
